User stories

- As a user, I want to be able to create dream entries and save them through this app, so that it works like a journal.
- As a user, I want to have a way to see all my dream entries like snapshots or thumbnails, and be able to expand each one, so that I can read the full entry again.
- As a user, I want to be able to not only see a separate record of my dreams, but I also want to read other people's interesting dreams, so that I can feel all the feels.
- As a user, I want anonymous attribution, so that there is a lower risk factor for posting weird embarrassing dreams.
- As a user, I want to be able to find some outside resources from this app, so that I can learn more about my dream or about dreams in general.
- As a user, I want to be entertained by the app experience, so that I'm motivated to keep using it.
- As a user, I want this app to be mobile-friendly so it's easy to use as soon as I wake up when I want to record my dream.
- As a user, I want to tag my dreams with descriptors, so that I can easily see themes or patterns.
- As a user, I want to be able to sort my dreams by the tags I've given them, so that I can see all the dreams that fall under a certain descriptor.
- As a user, I want to be able to edit or delete a dream, so that I feel like I have control over my entries.
